PREFACE

This Supplement reproduces some of those clauses or parts of clauses of AS 1428—1977 which have not been superseded by AS 1428.1—1988.

Necessary revision to these clauses will be incorporated in the proposed AS 1428.2 which is in the course of preparation and which is intended to cover enhanced and additional requirements for access which are not included in the minimum requirements in Part 1.

Some clauses of AS 1428—1977 which have not been revised and included in AS 1428.1, in particular those covering requirements for moving walkways and for baths, have not been included in these extracts because they require extensive revision.

The only alterations which have been made to the clauses contained in this Supplement are to cross-references which now designate AS 1428.1.

On the publication of AS 1428.2, this Supplement will be withdrawn.
