The 1999 edition of this Standard is being issued with an automatic addenda subscription service. The use of an addenda allows revisions made in response to public review comments or Committee actions to be published as necessary. The next edition of this Standard is scheduled for publication in 2004.

ASME is the registered trademark of The American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

This code or standard was developed under procedures accredited as meeting the criteria for American National Standards. The Standards Committee that approved the code or standard was balanced to assure that individuals from competent and concerned interests have had an opportunity to participate. The proposed code or standard was made available for public review and comment that provides an opportunity for additional public input from industry, academia, regulatory agencies, and the public-at-large.

ASME does not "approve," "rate," or "endorse" any item, construction, proprietary device, or activity.

ASME does not take any position with respect to the validity of any patent rights asserted in connection with any items mentioned in this document, and does not undertake to insure anyone utilizing a standard against liability for infringement of any applicable letters patent, nor assumes any such liability. Users of a code or standard are expressly advised that determination of the validity of any such patent rights, and the risk of infringement of such rights, is entirely their own responsibility.

Participation by federal agency representative(s) or person(s) affiliated with industry is not to be interpreted as government or industry endorsement of this code or standard.

ASME accepts responsibility for only those interpretations of this document issued in accordance with the established ASME procedures and policies, which precludes the issuance of interpretations by individuals.

FOREWORD

Subcommittee 38, Abbreviations, was formed in May 1995, and is a Subcommittee of the ASME Standards Committee Y14, Engineering Drawing and Related Documentation Practices. The Subcommittee is charged with the responsibility of compiling and maintaining a listing of abbreviations and acronyms for use on engineering drawings and related documents.

ASME Y1.1-1989, has been revised and redesignated as ASME Y14.38. This Standard is based on ASME Y1.1 and MIL-STD-12.

Existing abbreviations and acronyms with slashes (/), dashes (-), spaces ( ), numbers (3), and symbols (%) have been revised. These abbreviations and acronyms have been deleted or amended to exclude previously existing slashes (/), dashes (-), spaces ( ), numbers (3), and symbols (%).

The successful completion of this Standard is attributed to the subcommittee members, contributing guests, and the departments and agencies of the U.S. Government.

Suggestions for the improvement of this Standard are welcome. They should be sent to The American Society of Mechanical Engineers; Attn.: Secretary, Y14 Main Committee, Three Park Avenue, New York, NY 10016-5990.

This revision was approved as an American National Standard on March 23, 1999.
