PREFACE

This document is published by Standards Australia on behalf of the Agriculture and Resources Management Council Australia and New Zealand (ARMCANZ) Committee for Plumbing Product Authorizations (CPPA). As further product specifications are developed within the Standards Australia committee system, the technical content of this Manual will change by virtue of cross-reference to Australian Standards. In no way does the publication of this document, or the participation of Standards Australia committees in the formulation of Australian Standards, alter the ultimate legal responsibility or power vested in each of the participating authorities contributing to its preparation.

Appendix B of this Manual sets out a brief summary of specific requirements or exemptions which are applicable to the relevant participating authorities.

A record of amendments sheet has been included at the rear of this Manual to enable readers to confirm the amendment status of their manual.

Users of Standards are reminded that copyright subsists in all Standards Australia publications and software. Except where the Copyright Act allows and except where provided for below no publications or software produced by Standards Australia may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system in any form or transmitted by any means without prior permission in writing from Standards Australia. Permission may be conditional on an appropriate royalty payment. Requests for permission and information on commercial software royalties should be directed to the head office of Standards Australia.

Standards Australia will permit up to 10 percent of the technical content pages of a Standard to be copied for use exclusively in-house by purchasers of the Standard without payment of a royalty or advice to Standards Australia.

Standards Australia will also permit the inclusion of its copyright material in computer software programs for no royalty payment provided such programs are used exclusively in-house by the creators of the programs.

Care should be taken to ensure that material used is from the current edition of the Standard and that it is updated whenever the Standard is amended or revised. The number and date of the Standard should therefore be clearly identified.

The use of material in print form or in computer software programs to be used commercially, with or without payment, or in commercial contracts is subject to the payment of a royalty. This policy may be varied by Standards Australia at any time.
